14th LUCIE AWARDS HONOR THE MASTERS OF PHOTOGRAPHY GALA RETURNS TO ZANKEL HALL AT CARNEGIE HALL SUNDAY, OCTOBER 23, 2016 CELEBRATION OF GREATEST ACHIEVEMENTS IN PHOTOGRAPHY

August 23, 2016 (Los Angeles, CA) - The prestigious Lucie Awards ceremony once again celebrates an array of legends from the field of photography with a stellar line up of honorees. The Red Carpet Gala ceremony will take place at the renowned Zankel Hall at Carnegie Hall, on Sunday, October 23, 2016. The Lucie Foundation along with its Advisory Board, has announced an impressive list of eight Honorees:

Don McCullin for Achievement in Photojournalism,
Rosalind Fox Solomon for Achievement in Portraiture,
Anthony Hernandez for Achievement in Fine Art,
Simon Bruty for Achievement in Sports,
Graham Nash as the recipient of the Double Exposure Award,
Nathan Lyons as the recipient of the Visionary Award,
Tsuneko Sasamoto as the recipient of the Lifetime Achievement Award and,
Musée de l'Elysée as the recipient of the Spotlight Award.

"It is with great pride that we present the Honorees of the 14th year of The Lucie Awards. I am thrilled with the caliber of photographers that the advisory board identifies each year," remarked Hossein Farmani, Founder and Chairman of the Lucie Awards. "From the extraordinary mission of The Musée de l'Elysée, one of the world's leading museums dedicated to photography, to the impressive talents of our seven other honorees, I know that this year's celebration will appropriately highlight these bodies of work and the important images they bring to the world."

David Clarke, Lucie Advisory Board Chairman commented, "This year's list of honorees is a veritable roll call of photographic royalty! They have a common gift of tenacity and determination to achieve their vision, which separate the ordinary from the good and the good from the great! The honorees include such talents as the inspiring Tsuneko Sasamoto who succeeded in a fiercely patriarchal society to be accepted as the first woman Japanese photojournalist, a Lancashire lad Graham Nash who has complemented his outstanding music career to create a documentary of his life and times with intimate and sensitive images, and five other remarkable talents, including one of my personal heroes Don McCullin, as well as the deserving Musée de l'Elysée."

"The spectacular Lucie Awards enters its 14th year of placing the art of photography front and center. This global effort shines a bright light on honorees, some of whom might not be known, but whose images will resonate and remain with you well after this wonderful evening is over. To me, that is the best part of the Lucies, to discover, or re-discover the powerful impact these image-makers have had in places all around the world. We are so proud and excited to honor them and tell their stories," remarked Susan Baraz, Co-Chair of the Lucie Awards, Head of Judging for IPA.

In addition to recognizing these seven masters in their fields plus the Musée de l'Elysée, The Lucie Awards also honors the year's best photographic achievements by presenting seven Support Category awards. These categories range from Fashion Layout of the Year to Curator/Exhibition of the Year. These Support Awards acknowledge the individuals and institutions that play an important part in the crafting and promoting of images.

At this year's gala, The International Photography Awards (IPA), the outstanding global competition, and sister-effort of the Lucie Awards, will announce the top 4 winners, including the Photographer of the Year.
